Press Release

Date: January 10, 2013

Location: Chevron Gas Station, 290 S. Highland Springs Avenue, Banning

Incident: Armed Robbery

On Thursday, January 10, 2013, about 3:20 p.m., Banning Police officers responded to a report of an armed robbery at the Chevron Gas Station located at 290 S. Highland Springs Avenue, Banning. Two suspects entered the business and confronted the employee at the counter. A heavy set Black or Hispanic male, in his early 20's, wearing a black hooded sweater, displayed a handgun and demanded money. The second suspect, a thin build black male or female, about 18 years of age, with shoulder length curly black hair, wearing a green and blue striped sweater, acted as a lookout. The employee handed the male suspect cash; both suspects then fled the location on foot. There were no customers in the business at the time of the robbery and there were no injuries to the employee during the incident.
