Press Release

Date: January 14, 2013

Location: Banning Pawn, 6350 W. Ramsey Street, #F, Banning

Incident: Commercial Burglary

On 01/13/2013, about 2:56 am, officers were dispatched to an alarm at Banning Pawn, 6350 W. Ramsey Street, Suite F, Banning.

Officers arrived about eleven seconds after being dispatched. A perimeter was established and a search of Banning Pawn, businesses that are housed in the same complex, and surrounding area was conducted.

The investigation revealed unknown suspect(s) cut a hole in the roof of the business complex directly above Banning Pawn. A single male, possibly Caucasian or Hispanic, lowered himself inside Banning Pawn. The male broke a display case and then fled through the same way he entered.

At this time, there does not appear to have been anything taken during the burglary. This case is currently under investigation.
