Press Release

Date: July 28, 2008

Location: 125 East Ramsey Street, Banning

Incident: Ground-breaking Ceremony for New Police Facility on 08/08/08 at 11:00 A.M.

The Banning Police Department is happy to announce the official ground-breaking ceremony for its new police facility scheduled for August 8, 2008 at 11:00 A.M. The ceremony will take place on Ramsey Street, east of City Hall. Dignitaries on the local, county, state, and federal level are expected to attend this historic occasion. On June 24, 2008, the Banning City Council approved the construction of a new police facility and awarded the project to Oakview Constructors, Inc. based out of Calimesa. The project is anticipated to take 17 months to complete.

If you have any questions regarding the ground-breaking ceremony, please contact Lt. Phil Holder at (951) 922-4831.
