Incident: Sexual Offender Arrested on Registration Violation
Case # 13-3061

On 8-25-13, it was reported that CRAKAAL, CURTIS, a registered sex offender residing in the City of Banning was seen with a teenage boy and possibly in violation of his sexual offender status. During the investigation the boy was never identified and the Banning Police Department could not confirm that a violation had occurred. On 10-1-13, the Banning Police Department was notified that CRAKAAL had registered as a sexual offender with the City of Hemet Police Department, but failed to complete all of the requirements of his registration with the Banning Police Department. On 10-8-13, Detectives of the Banning were able to locate CRAKAAL in the City of Hemet and he was arrested and booked into Smith Correctional Facility for violating his registration requirements under state law. This case is set for preliminary hearing in Riverside Superior Court – Banning Division on 10-24-13.

Inquiries should be directed to the Banning Police Department Detective Bureau
